MEXICANS FIRE ON AMERICANS

SHOTS ARE EXCHANGED ACROSS RIO GRANDE AT EL PASO, TEXAS.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 2.—The American soldiers stationed as sentries on the American side of the Rio Grande, near Washington Park, were fired upon from the Mexican side of the river about 10 o'clock tonight.

The Americans promptly returned the fire, and fully fifty shots were exchanged.

In the darkness it was impossible to see who fired the shots that came from Mexico.

An American residence was struck three times by the bullets fired from Mexico, causing alarm to the occupants.

POPE BEGINS TENTH YEAR OF REIGN

Rome, August 3.—It will be nine years tomorrow since the memorable Sunday on which Giuseppe Sarto, who had been Patriarch of Venice, was crowned Pontifex Maximus of the Catholic church and invested with the insignia of his office in the great Basilica of St. Peter, filled to its capacity with interested spectators from all parts of the globe. Owing to the extremely delicate condition of the Pope's health, which compelled him some time ago reluctantly to follow the urgent advice of his physicians and to suspend all public audiences and functions, there will be no public observance of the anniversary.

The fact that tomorrow Pius X. will enter upon the tenth year of his reign as supreme pontiff partakes of a traditional importance inasmuch as it disproves the superstitious prediction that Pope Pius, who was nine years a parish priest, nine years a bishop and nine years a patriarch, would not be pope more than nine years. Superstitions concerning the probable duration of the reign of popes have always been quite common, but almost invariably their fallacy was shown by the actual facts. During the reign of Pius IX. the superstitious belief was quite general that he would not be pope more than twenty-five years, two months and seven days, that is, not longer than St. Peter reigned after the establishment of the papal see in Rome. Yet Pius IX. disproved the superstitious theory by reigning 31 years, 7 months and 21 days.

There have been but three Popes who have reigned more than twenty years. The first was St. Peter, who reigned for twenty-five years, the first seven years of his life in Antioch and then came to Rome where he reigned an additional 18 years, two months and seven days before he died a martyr.

tyr. Next to him came Pius IX., who was Pope 25 years and 5 months. Six Pontiffs have reigned more than 23 years; eleven more than 20 years; 300 less than one year and nine less than one month. Of the first 30 Popes, 29 were martyrs, except St. Dionysius, who was the 25th. The total number of Popes who died martyrs was 33.

In view of the precarious condition of the Pope's health and the possibility that he may not survive his anniversary by more than a few months, speculation is ripe as to his probable successor in the pontificate. Of course, there is nothing definite to form the basis of a forecast, but one thing seems to be tolerably certain—that the next Pope will not be an American. In fact it seems to be generally understood that the successor of Pius X. is to be an Italian. The tremendous growth and development of the Roman Catholic church in the United States had given rise to the hope that sooner or later one of the American cardinals would be selected for the papacy. That time may eventually come, but of present that hope is undoubtedly premature.

In the selection of a candidate for the pontificate many things have to be considered and so intricate are the conditions which have their bearing upon the choice that few men outside of the church, in fact, outside of the highest hierarchy of the church, can fully realize and appreciate them. A great body, especially a religious one, is, necessarily, "conservative" and the Catholic church is no exception. The time has not yet come for selecting a pontiff from outside of Italy. But, even if the church were ready and willing to go outside, the Italian government is not yet ready to permit this. The Catholic church is not wholly free in its selection of supreme pontiff; hence the agitation, not yet ended by any means, for the sovereignty of the Pope. The Vatican Palace, itself, it must be remembered belongs to the Italian government, and it is exceedingly doubtful that the Italian government would consent to the occupation of the Vatican by a pope who is an American citizen, an Englishman, an Austrian, a Frenchman or a Spaniard.

The choice of a successor to Pius X. being thus narrowed down to the Italian contingent of the Sacred College, it becomes comparatively simple to mention the six cardinals who are considered the strongest candidates for the papacy. First come the leaders of the three parties in the Sacred College, Cardinal Rampolla, who was a candidate at the last conclave, Cardinal De Lai and Cardinal Maffi and next in line Cardinal Ferrata, Cardinal Roselmy, archbishop of Turin, and Cardinal Gasparri. It is the general belief in well informed circles that one of these six is practically sure to be selected for the honor.

CHAMPIONS DEFEAT THE OUTLAWS

ADA DEFEATS ALLEN IN FAST BALL GAME—SCORE 9 TO 1.

Dug Asberry was simply too much for the Allen bunch yesterday. At no stage of the game did the Outlaws stand a ghost of a chance to win. In fact they missed the mysterious slants of the mighty Indian any where from six inches to three feet. In the whole nine rounds they were able to garner only three hits and one run. This run was not Dug's fault, however, for the man got to third base on a wild throw of the fielders. Norman for Allen pitched good ball, but he looked small beside the wiry southpaw for Ada. And what makes the whole affair more interesting is the fact that Dug did not pitch but two hard balls. He simply outguessed the opposing batters, and made them swing at little easy floaters.

Now, while Dug was laughing and playing with the visitors on the defense, the Champions were batting and running bases like fiends. Norman could not stop the slugging till Ada had piled up eleven hits and nine runs. Reed was clearly the star at bat, getting no less than three hits out of four times at bat, one being for two bases. C. Kaiser was there with the goods also, and put one in the corner field for a clean home run.

The score would indicate that the game was poorly played, but such is not the case. A better exhibition of base ball has not been seen in Ada in many a day. The Allen boys are a mighty good bunch of ball players, but they simply played in bad luck. They intend to come back for vengeance today, and unless the Ada boys are on their toes, they will get it, too.

While all parts of the game were played, running bases was the special feature that Ada pulled off. McCain simply ran bases at will. He stole second with the ball in the pitcher's hand, then a little later he and Hale executed a double steal that brought every spectator to his feet. Of course every body knows that Johnny Kaiser simply did as he wanted to do, that is, go down when he wanted to.

No scoring was done till the second inning. Kaiser was safe on an error by Paxson, went to second on Hale's sacrifice, and scored on Reed's single. Ada scored three more in the third. J. Kaiser walked. Roddie ran out a bunt. Both advanced a base on Milner's wild throw to second, and scored when Wilson failed to field Asberry's easy grounder. Asberry went to second on Ellis's sacrifice to third on wild throw, and scored on Kaiser's hit to short.

In the sixth Ada scored three more. C. Kaiser singled. Hale was safe on Norman's error. Kaiser was out on third from McCain's bunt. Hale and McCain scored on Reed's single to left. Reed scored on Caudel's hit to short.

Allen got its lone tally in the seventh. Ballinger was safe on first on Reeds error, went to third on a wild throw and scored on Norman's sacrifice fly.

Ada also added two to its list in this inning. Ellis walked and scored when C. Kaiser knocked a home run.

OKLAHOMA CONFEDERATE

Reunion to Be Held in Ada September 4, 5 and 6.

Since before even the paleolithic period of man he has been clannish. It is inherent. They love assemblies and conversation. Especially is this so as related to interest in common, and more especially if those common interests have called forth a fellowship in sacrifice and shedding of blood. Out of this innate principle has come the church, the assemblies, the reunions.

It is this love of gathering in a common interest that brings the old Confederate Veterans to Ada on September 4, 5 and 6. And it must be, as the years increase there is a corresponding decrease in the ranks. These reunions represent the greatest day of the year in the life of many of our sons of the Southland. Many phases of the reunion contribute to this, therefore not one should fail to be at

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

(Political Adv.)

It has reached me from a reliable source that the "single shot" game is going to be used against me in my campaign for STATE COMMITTEE MAN on the Democratic Ticket, and the practice of the political trickster in this respect is not well known to the average voter.

When a candidate unfavorable to the "gang" is in greater favor than either or both of the opponents, they figure out which of the two candidates will be strongest in certain boxes and sum up the result; they will then plan to throw "all the votes" (which thank God they cannot control but a small part) to the man that appears to suit their nefarious purpose. They do not care for the interests of the people.

I have the consolation of knowing from reports that reach me that the "gang" cannot deliver the goods—the people will not become victims of their political trick; the honest voter is not to be so deceived.

It is the trick of the politician of the lowest type to make the honest voter sacrifice his vote to accomplish their nefarious purpose.

If I thought I could get every vote from my opponents by yielding up the smallest part of my independence—though it may be insignificant—demand in effect—I would rather go down in defeat and maintain my integrity and independence of them, than to yield to them in the least manner possible.

I ask no quarter from them and expect to grant none; therefore I cannot expect anything but their opposition with all the tricks known to the craft; they will have my opposition wherever their campaign is started against an honest election. Their double-dealing methods need to be made known to the voters and I am simply stating that above with no fear of the result of the coming primary. I am not so easy to be frightened. I would not grieve if defeated, and in conclusion will state that I am fighting for a just cause against the "old ring" and if they do beat me I will have the consolation of knowing that my cause was just; that I was right.

I have no fear of defeat at their hands when the people know their game; I expect to carry three-fourths of the boxes in the county by a large majority.

PICNIC IS STILL IN PROGRESS

A large crowd attended the picnic Friday and today. In addition to hundreds of Woodmen and their families, many others have been in attendance.

Friday afternoon R. C. Roland delivered an address on fraternalism and time was given to some of the candidates. Leslie P. Ross spoke in the interest of his candidacy for congressman-at-large, and Mr. Gilkerson of Waurika made a strong appeal for B. V. Cummings of his town, and made some very complimentary references to Bob Echols, who was formerly his law partner.

In the evening the degree teams drilled on the street at the intersection of Broadway and 12th, a large crowd witnessing the drill. Besides the Ada team those of Francis and Roff are here and a part of the Fitzhugh team. They have drilled today at the picnic ground.

In the evening, at the close of the drill, Senator W. M. Franklin, head consul of the W. O. W. of Oklahoma, delivered a stirring address on the subject of Woodcraft and the work of the order.

The ball game between Allen and Ada drew a good crowd, and another is in progress today.

Most of the county candidates have been on hand and this afternoon all will be given an opportunity of presenting their claims to the voters.

This picnic has had the result of bringing the members of the W. O. W. and Circle of every part of the county together and will be felt in the closer fraternal relations of the camps of Pontotoc county.

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness—Profit by Ada People's Experience.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time, but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy—puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when you old time health and vigor will return. Cures in Ada prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. Catherine A. Carter, 309 South Stockton avenue, Ada, Okla., says: "I suffered from rheumatic twinges and other symptoms of kidney trouble. My back ached and the kidney action was irregular. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills I used them. They relieved the pain and regulated the kidney action. I highly recommend this remedy to any one suffering as I did."

New Industrial Material.

As the result of many years of experimenting in England, a new substitute for hard rubber, gutta percha and leather has been announced. It is a product of seaweed. The new material is said to be especially useful in the electrical industries, being a noninflammable insulation of high dielectric strength, proof against heat, cold, oils and weather.

Phillips on Matrimony.

The late David Graham Phillips had, like many bachelors, a cynical view of matrimony. Mr. Phillips, at a reunion of Princeton's class of '87, at the Princeton club, said of marriage: "The Persians have a proverb that every young man should consider well before proposing. It runs: 'He that ventures on matrimony is like unto one who thrusteth his hand into a sack containing many thousands of serpents and one eel. Yet, if the prophet so will it, he may draw forth the eel.'"

Revolutionary.

"Kate is a perfect crank on woman's rights." "Believes that women are equal to men, eh?" "Superior! Why, do you know, she never plays cards without insisting that the queen shall take the king."

ADVICE MANY MIGHT FOLLOW

"Live Suddenly," Said Mrs. Brown to Friend, and Results Amply Justified the Counsel.

Mrs. Brown went in to see Mrs. Smith, whom she found, tired and pale, trying to sew with the baby on her lap.

"Life does seem hard," Mrs. Smith said, after a little ordinary conversation; "I've just had a letter from my sister wanting me to come there for a fortnight and bring the baby. It looks like heaven to only think of it, but, of course, I can't go."

"Why not?" asked Mrs. Brown. "Oh, it would be perfectly impossible. There's the sewing and the cleaning, besides everything else. I've got to stay here."

"Suppose you died suddenly—what then?"

"O, then, of course, they'd just have to get along somehow."

"Then why not live suddenly, and let them get along somehow, just the same?"

Mrs. Smith stared. "Live suddenly," she said. "Why, I never heard of such a thing!"

But, nevertheless, Mrs. Brown managed to get her to do it, and the next week she went off for a fortnight and didn't come back for a month.

What happened at home was like a miracle.

Elsie and Amy, whom their mother never allowed to take the least care, took all the care and made father and the boys have a regular picnic. The boys turned in and helped clean the house. Mrs. Brown cut out the sewing and showed the girls how to do it.

The whole family took hold exactly as they would have done had the wife and mother been suddenly snatched away.

Only, as she was just "suddenly alive" instead, there was joy instead of sorrow, looking ahead, instead of looking backward.

And then what a homecoming, with the baby rosy and all its back teeth out, and mother not tired, not pale, not fidgety, not nervous.

Really and truly alive for the first time in years. What a stupid lot of big children we are, anyway, fumbling over dirty old methods, when the new ones are showing clean, smiling faces everywhere! Here's to no more necessary people "dying suddenly." Let's all "live suddenly" and be happy forever after.—The Nautilus.

Spanish Soil Yields $656 an Acre.

The most intensively cultivated region in Europe is that part of the province of Valencia, Spain, which lies between the mountains and the Mediterranean. It has a rainfall of only about seventeen inches a year, but so fertile is the soil and so skilled are its workers that it produces crops worth an average of $656 an acre, according to a report sent to Washington by Consul Robert Frazer, Jr.

There are districts, he says, where 100 acres support 160 families, and where single families live on the product of four-tenths of an acre. Farms are rented for $29.50 an acre, and the tenant pays 45 cents an hour for pumped water, which flows in a stream of 200 gallons per minute.

Almost all farming is done by hand, as minute attention is given to crops and even to individual plants. The average production of the principal crops is as follows, in metric tons of 2,204 pounds: Oranges, 400,000 tons; olives, 65,000; carob beans, 72,000; peanuts, 13,500; melons, 36,000; grapes, 87,000; peppers, 12,000; tomatoes, 27,000; wheat, 62,000; barley, 13,000; corn, 33,000; rice, 200,000.

Sewing Made Easy.

Persons, with the store window habit have found something to stare at in a little notion store. Stretching across the window are three strands of No. 40 white thread still attached to the spools. Suspended from each thread are twenty-five needles.

"My little daughter threaded them," the storekeeper said. "They are a wonderful convenience for people with such poor eyes that they can't see to thread their own needles. Here is a whole bunch of them already threaded and all the sewer has to do is to unwind the thread until she has the desired length for the first needle, then slip the other needles along until it comes their turn. Maybe in some neighborhoods that contrivance wouldn't be appreciated very highly, but here it is a real blessing. Within a few blocks of the store are three old ladies' homes. The old ladies like to sew, but they have found it impossible to keep their needles threaded. Now that job is already done for them for the original cost of the needles and thread."—New York Press.

Bride's Puzzling Order.

An absent-minded bride, anxious not to forget to order two chickens for dinner, repeated to herself as while clearing away the breakfast things: "Grocer—chickens—grocer—chickens."

The words became confused in her mind, so that when she went to the telephone she asked: "Have you any nice young grocers?"

"Why—why—yes," replied an astonished voice at the other end of the wire.

"Well," said the bride, "send me two, dressed."

"Dressed?" said the voice, more astonished than before.

"Why, no," answered the bride, "believe you may send them undressed if my husband comes home and will bring their necks and an dress them."

Vitagraph's Sensational Detective Story "On the Pupil Of His Eye"

Conan Doyle never wrote a better one than this. An innocent young man is accused of murdering his uncle. An old servant is suspected. A noted detective publishes in the newspapers as a thought suggestion, that a photograph of the dead man's eye will be taken and the image last seen by the eye will reveal the murderer. This unusual and fascinating picture holds one spell-bound in its grip and the unfolding of a plot that makes it a physiological study.

day. Mrs. Adair and Mrs. Tomlinson are sisters.

Jim Baze returned yesterday afternoon from Morris, where he was called by the death of his father which occurred Wednesday. The interment took place Thursday. Deceased was about 60 years old at the time of his death. The News extends its sympathy to Mr. Baze.

This evening is your last chance to see Capt. Scott's south pole expedition. There is something worth seeing every minute of the time. The vessel among the ice, the sledges and ponies all go to make up a remarkable picture at the Lyric.

Conan Doyle never wrote a more fascinating detective story than "On the Pupil of His Eye," the story that will be told in pictures at the De-Sta this evening. How a shrewd detective solved the mystery of a murder plot is told in a wonderful manner. "The Stranded Actors" is a comedy such as one likes to see when in need of an hour of recreation.

In spite of the threatening weather the presentation of the Holy City at the DeSota drew a good crowd last evening. The picture was all that was claimed for it and no one could witness it without being impressed. This evening a feature will be the "Medal of Honor," being a strong story well told by the pictures. War, Love and a Bonnet, is another that will interest you.

Meeting of Patrons Club.

Thursday afternoon the Patrons Club of the High school met with Mrs. R. M. Roddie. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Bowman. The main topic under consideration was securing literature on child study for the coming year. Prof. French gave a splendid talk on the literature used at his place last year and also exhibited a book for the instruction of the club, and which it is thinking of using. Prof. Shipp also made some valuable suggestions.

After the meeting had adjourned, delicious cream and cake was served.

CATARRH MISERIES FOREVER ENDED

A Simple, Safe Remedy Brings Instant Relief, Even in the Worst Cases.

The quickest, safest and best way to cure catarrh is by using a remedy that will touch the spot and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble, and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh. In a few minutes after applied, you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membranes, stops the nasty discharge which makes the breath foul and causes the disgusting hawking, spitting and blowing. Hay fever victims who are made miserable with fits of sneezing and coughing get instant relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't suffer with catarrh another day. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a fifty cent bottle will more than likely effect a complete cure. Special Agents—Gwin & Mays Drug Company.

Remember if you get 1500 lbs. of lump coal and 500 lbs. of slack for a ton you have really only 1500 lbs. of coal as the slack is worthless to you. We would not let you have slack if you wanted it as we need it for our boilers, so be sure and get our prices before you buy.

Boils, Rashes, Pimples, Etc.

When the blood becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by boils, pimples, and rashes or eruptions on the skin. Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the eliminative members. Thus unhealthy matter is left in the system to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the circulation. Remove these humors and no skin trouble can exist, because its very source is then removed. Boils, rashes, pimples, etc. can never be cured through the application of external medicines, because such treatment can have no possible effect on the blood; the most to be obtained from such measures is temporary relief. S. S. S. CURES all skin affections because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and cleanses it of every particle of unhealthy matter. Then the blood exercises its normal function of supplying nourishment to the cuticle instead of irritating it with a fiery humor. If you have any skin trouble you could not do better than purify your blood with S. S. S. It does not "patch up" it cures Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

NEWS FORECAST OF THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—There promises to be more doing in the field of politics during the coming week than at any time since the adjournment of the Baltimore convention. First on the political calendar will be the third party national convention which is to assemble in Chicago Monday. With the convention's nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for president the selection of his running-mate on the progressive ticket the entries will close in the grand presidential sweepstakes.

Governor Woodrow Wilson will receive formal notice that he is the democratic candidate for president on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when the fifty-two members of the notification committee, with Ollie James, permanent chairman of the Baltimore convention, at its head, will gather at Sea Girt and break the news to him. Then Governor Wilson will make his "keynote" speech.

All parties in Kansas are to engage in a state primary Tuesday for the selection of candidates for governor and other state officers, members of the judiciary, representatives in congress, members of the legislature and county officers. The parties also will express their preferences for United States senator to succeed Charles Curtis, whose term will expire next March. Senator Curtis is a candidate for re-election and is opposed on the republican side by Governor Stubbs, who is making his fight on a progressive platform.

Whether Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma is to have another term will be settled in the general primaries in that state Tuesday. The opposing democratic candidate is former governor, Charles N. Haskell. Five republicans are contesting for senatorship.

Chief interest in the Missouri primaries to be held Tuesday centers in the democratic contest for the gubernatorial nomination, in which the leading candidates are former Congressman William C. Cowherd and Attorney General Elliott W. Major.

Indiana republicans will hold their state convention in Indianapolis Tuesday for the adoption of a platform and the selection of candidates for governor and other state officers to be voted for in November.

The democrats of Colorado will hold their state "assembly" in Pueblo Tuesday to select the names of candidates to go on the ballots in the state primary next month.

Events of the week in other lands will include the celebration of the Krupp centennial at Essen, which is to be attended by Emperor William; the dedication of the "Danish-American National Park," in the province of Jutland, Denmark; the celebration in Rome of the ninth anniversary of the coronation of Pope Pius X.; the seventeenth International congress of Medicine, which is to be held in London, and the celebration of the opening of the great railway across the Andes, from Africa to La Paz.

Among the important conventions of the week will be the meeting of the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Denver, the Southern Merchants' Convention in Atlanta, the annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, at Notre Dame, Ind.; the meeting of the Pacific Highway Association in San Francisco, the annual convention of the National Association of Organists, at Ocean Grove, N. J., and the annual meeting of the Canadian Medical Association at Edmonton.
